ARAMARK Harrison Lodging Selected to Manage Georgetown University Hotel & Conference Center

PHILADELPHIA (August 15, 2008) – ARAMARK Harrison Lodging (AHL), a leader in the conference and corporate training centers industry, today announced that ARAMARK Harrison Lodging was awarded the contract to manage the Georgetown University Hotel & Conference Center located on the campus of Georgetown University. Under the terms of the agreement which goes into effect on Sept. 20, 2008, AHL will be responsible for all management and operational functions of the property.

“The Georgetown University Hotel & Conference Center exemplifies ARAMARK Harrison Lodging’s continued commitment to providing the public with innovative learning and leisure environments,” said Joshua Hubbard, associate vice president, ARAMARK Harrison Lodging, Higher Education. “Its conference center facilities, combined with an ideal location on the campus of one of the nation’s most elite higher education institutions, provide the perfect backdrop for both leisure and business guests.”

Located in the heart of the Georgetown Historic district, Georgetown University Hotel & Conference Center offers guests a wide array of meeting, recreational services and lodging amenities as well as convenient access to Washington D.C. attractions.

The Conference Center offers 14 meeting rooms with over 13,500 square feet of meeting space and a ballroom that boasts 10,500 square feet when used in its entirety, wireless Internet access and a fully equipped business center. The ballroom can be broken down into eight different configurations, along with smaller individual conference rooms surrounding the ballroom for additional breakouts.
